Library program to teach residents to make art out of everyday scraps

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Residents looking for creative new art and craft ideas are invited to attend a program at the Macomb County Library hosted by the organization Arts & Scraps.

Participants will learn how to make unique art out of everyday materials and scraps. At the end of the workshop, participants will visit the “Scrapmobile” for a free bag of scraps that can be used for more projects at home.

The presentation will last about 45 minutes and is for children ages 3 1/2 to 5 years old and their parents or caregivers.

The program will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 12, at the Macomb County Library.

This program is free, but reservations are required. For more information or reservations, call 586-286-6660.

The Macomb County Library is located at 16480 Hall Road (near Garfield), Clinton

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 825,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan's second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
